NUMBER 118

The citizens of Bloomington, Illinois have already raised $1,000 for a monument to Little. The intention of the leaders of this movement is to open subscription lists in all cities and towns where the lamented prima donna ever sang.

The saloon keepers at St. Joseph, Missouri, are in trouble. The retail dealers will have to pay a license fee of $1,130, and the retailers of wine and beer will have to pay $170. It is said that about fifty of the 195 saloon-keepers now in St. Joseph will quit the business.

Senator Edmunds is a wise man, and in all things a practical man. He has been traveling out west and in several other sections of the country, and he advises all persons who travel for pleasure and profit to avoid all places the guide books recommend. He says that anything more useless and misleading to a real sight-seer than the average guide book, would be difficult to find.

If the Western Union telegraph company wants to remove very much of the prejudice which exists against it, and rid itself of much of the unpopularity which is fastened upon it, it should do simply the fair thing—nothing more is asked—and meet the brotherhood committee and propose an honorable compromise. Two things are certain, first that the company can abundantly afford to pay its operators higher salaries; and second that it should pay them what their services are worth. It is not just that the company pay its operators scant salaries that it might be able to pay large dividends on $60,000,000 of watered stock.

The trade dollar is going about the country with the motto, "In God we trust," and yet no one will pay it respect and take it in. It has been suggested, and the suggestion comes with considerable force, that the government is bound to redeem the trade dollar as a matter of honor and public policy. Though it never paid out or received a single coin as cash, it put its seal upon the coin and the speculators did not rest. The speculators could not have circulated the trade dollar here but for the mint stamp. Hence the government is bound to relieve the victims of the delusion.

For good sense and pluck the following from the wife of a naval officer to the New York Herald, is one of the best things of the season: "No one but God or my husband has a right to separate me from my husband when there is a chance of our being together. I have followed him 18,000 miles in the last year, and I shall follow him 18,000 more if he is willing, in spite of Secretary Chandler or any one else." This lady has evidently got the secretary of the navy by the ears, and she proposes to hold on. She is right in her position, and if Secretary Chandler would permit officers wives to accompany them when it can conveniently be done, the morale of the service would be greatly improved.

Judge Forsaker, the republican candidate for governor of Ohio, opened the campaign in that state on Saturday. He presented the plain issues in the present canvass, and in fact it was a key-note speech for the campaign. In regard to the Scott liquor law—a law which the democrats and Judge Hooley denounce—Judge Forsaker said its contribution to Cincinnati this year is more than $400,000; in Cleveland more than $200,000, and in other cities in like proportion, aggregating for the whole State almost $2,000,000. As a result the property-owners of the state will not be called on to pay any taxes this year for poor-house purposes—the tax from this source being sufficient in almost all, if not quite all the counties of the state to meet the requirements of that fund.

There is still no change in the condition of things regarding the telegraphers' strike. The telegraph companies are operating their lines under a good deal of embarrassment, and newspapers as well as private business, suffer by the strike. The companies are doing the best they can, and under the circumstances are getting along very well. In New York city, the embarrassment does not seem to be as great as in some other places, as a dispatch from that city on Monday says: "The force of operators which reported for duty at the Western Union office this morning numbered about two hundred, and it was said that none of those who were at work last week were missing from their posts. There was no business left over last night, and this morning all the wires were clear, and there was no delay in handling all the matter. One of the officials said the outlook was becoming more encouraging every day. He said: 'The force at our command is now more advantageously distributed than at any time since the beginning of the strike, and everything is working much more smoothly than could have been expected under the circumstances.'"

WASHOUTS.

MILWAUKEE, July 23.—Washout occurred along the Chicago and Northwestern line in this state. On the Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western tracks at Ledyard, near Appleton, also on the Wisconsin Central road at Theresa, fifty miles north of Milwaukee. The Milwaukee river has risen over four feet, and wholesale stores are flooded in many places, and lumber is floating from the yards. The storm at Grand Rapids, Wis., caused the destruction of several buildings. At Madison a ball of fire danced over the house-tops for some time and finally struck the high school, doing considerable damage.

THE FLOODS.

The Heavy Bain Storm of Sunday Night.

The Tornado at Dodgeville.

The Telegraphers Strike in Wisconsin.

Other Interesting Items.

WISCONSIN FLOODS.

SHEBOYGAN. SHEBOYGAN, July 23.—The heaviest rain ever known in this section, came Sunday night, doing great damage to crops and buildings.

DODGEVILLE. DODGEVILLE, July 23.—The tornado at Cobb, twelve miles west of here, was more severe than at this place. It struck the town at 12:45 a. m., with appalling force and lasted about three minutes. It is believed by some that there were two branches of the tornado, the one destroying the depot and warehouse being separate from that which gave its attention to the town. Its direction was from a little south or west, and it was accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning and torrents of rain. The cyclone tore directly through the center of the town, which has a population of about 500, and wrought damage to property which will aggregate $10,000.

COUMBERS, July 23.—It began to rain here about 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon and continued throughout the entire night. It was by all odds the heaviest fall of rain we have had during the season of unprecedented rains. Persons coming in from the country report great damage to crops. Many splendid fields of wheat and barley present the appearance of having been passed over by a roller.

AROUND OSHKOSH. OSHKOSH, July 23.—This city and vicinity were again visited on Saturday by a destructive storm, or rather two of them. The first passed by the southward, and the second, which occurred in the evening, winged its way to the northward, blowing down barns, wrecking windmills, and generally destroying property.

GREEN BAY, July 23.—Owing to the washout of the bridge at Shiocton, and the submergence of the rails beyond that point by last Saturday's storm, on the Green Bay, Winona & St. Paul railroad, no train has arrived at this city since Saturday. The passenger train left here this morning, but could go no further than Shiocton. The full extent is not yet known, nor how soon trains will be able to run through. This is the first injury to the road during the season's storms.

GRAND RAPIDS, July 23.—The most terrible wind and rain storm ever known here visited this section at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, doing considerable damage to the business portion of the town. The Roche building was blown into the river, and the Gardner block partially unroofed, the front of J. Ward's drug store blown in and stock considerably damaged. Many buildings were moved from their foundations, and the fronts to several damaged. The court house tower was struck by lightning, while the damage to dwelling houses, fences, shade trees and crops can not be estimated.

NO CHANGE.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The telegraph interests of yesterday were not materially changed. "All's well, and we hold the fort with ease," they replied at Western Union headquarters. "We never had better work done in the Wheatstone department. Here are some figures handed in by the superintendent, which are very remarkable. In New York, 173 words per minute; from New York, 180 words per minute. This is the best day's work we ever had—the storm seeming to have no effect on the wires."

Upstairs in the operating-room the reporter counted 102 operators at work, and the chiefs seemed in remarkably good spirits.

"Here's a dispatch," remarked the superintendent, "that may be of interest." "New York, July 23.—R. C. Clowry, general superintendent, Chicago: Reports are being industriously circulated by hostile interests that there have been large withdrawals from the force in New York and Boston to-day, and that the cable operators at Dunkirk and Nova Scotia have also left their instruments. These statements are wholly and maliciously fraudulent, nothing of the kind having occurred. Our force has been considerably strengthened at New York and Boston to-day and there is no indication of dissatisfaction. At Philadelphia five accessions to the office force have been made from the original strikers. All of the operators are on regular duty at cable stations. Superintendent Clowry telegraphs to-day: 'Our force is strongly loyal and doing great work; none of the operators at our cable stations on Cape Breton struck.'"

"Chas. A. Tucker, general superintendent." A dispatch from Pueblo, Col., states that the striking force returned in full.

DROWNED.

BELOIT, Wis., July 23.—The sad news was received here yesterday of the drowning at Connel Grove, Kansas, of a Beloit boy, Harry Lilly, a brother of Mrs. Rev. F. A. Marsh. His remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The greatest medical wonder of the world. Wanted to speedily cure Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Cancers, Piles, Chilblains, Corns, Tetter, Chapped Hands, and all skin eruptions, guaranteed to cure in every instance, or money returned. 25 cents per box. For sale by F. Sherer & Co.

STATE TELEGRAPHY.

EAT CLAIR, July 23.—The telegraphers' strike is causing much inconvenience to the business men of this city, as well as at other places. The operators in the commercial offices are yet at their posts, and are able to get important dispatches through to St. Paul and intermediate points, but no further. The prevailing state of affairs is especially embarrassing to the lumber and grain interests in this section.

RAVINE, July 23.—So far as Ravine is concerned the service rendered by the Western Union telegraph company is unsatisfactory. Manager Derchester has worked hard since the strike began, but is unable to do the business as well as before. On Saturday a message was received by Mr. Derchester from President Eckert, stating that the faithful employees of his office would receive a reward for their services from July 16 to July 31.

MADISON, July 23.—Regarding the telegraph troubles, many here in their sympathy for the strikers go so far as to declare their opposition to amateurs going from here to Milwaukee and elsewhere to help the company defeat the regular employees who have served both the public and the corporation long and faithfully.

MANITOWOC, July 23.—The effect of the telegraph strike is felt in this city, merchants not being willing to do business "subject to delay"; 55 cents being the gross receipts of the office for Saturday. The sympathies of the people are with the operators in the contest.

GREEN BAY, July 23.—Very nearly the usual amount of business has been done at the telegraph office here to-day. Dispatches have been received from various sections of the country.

Prof. Horsford's Baking Powder.

FREE FROM TASTE. PROF. HENRY A. DANCER, of Santa Clara College, San Francisco, Cal., says: "I take pleasure in stating that Prof. Horsford's Baking Powder makes excellent bread and biscuits, light, spongy and perfectly free from anything like a taste of baking powder."

UNDER A HUNDRED TONS.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 23.—There was a terrible accident at a blast furnace at Geddes this afternoon. Eight men entered the furnace to construct a new lining when the old lining fell upon them, killing all instantly. A hundred tons of brick and mortar fell upon them. The victims were married and had families.

THE LOTTERIES.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—It is understood that Colonel C. W. Moulton will enter a personal suit in the name of A. A. Danphun, against Walter G. Gresham for $100,000 damages. The ground of action is that Mr. Gresham exceeded his authority as postmaster general, in that there was no evidence before him when he made the order of July 9, 1883, that Mr. Danphun was engaged in a scheme or device, for obtaining money through the mails by means of false and fraudulent representations or promises. The counsel for Mr. Danphun claims that the order of February 20, 1880, in which Judge Key said that he was not satisfied that M. A. Danphun was engaged in such a scheme or device, revoked the order of Nov. 13, 1879, and that no evidence has since been produced that he is so engaged.

THE CASUALTY RECORD.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 23.—A horrible accident occurred near Webster, Taylor county, this morning. A farmer named Wm. Carson was driving a mowing machine in the meadow, holding in his arms a child 3 years old. The horse became frightened and in the sudden start threw the boy from his father's arm in front of the cutter bar. The father jumped to save the child and fell. The mowing machine ran over both. The boy was cut to death and the father horribly mangled and fatally injured. The machine was broken to pieces and one of the horses killed. The young wife of the farmer is lying in a faint and fears are entertained for her recovery.

We All Believe

That it is a long lane that has no turning; that many a shaft at random sent, finds a mark the wrecker little meant; that no remedy sold will cure coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and all throat and lung troubles so quickly nor permanently as Dr. Bigelow's Positive cure; that our druggists, Stearns & Baker are very generous to give trial bottles of the remedy free of charge.

A Dude in the Wild, Wild West.

[Cor. Dever News.]

The car was full, and I pre-empted a seat on the rear platform. Inside were miners bound for Carbonate, a drummer, one lady, and a something that we all decided was a dude. Once in a while the train would be lost among coney pines, and then through a gap in the trees would be caught an Eden-like glimpse of the disappearing park. There were innumerable shades of green beside the track; the brilliancy of grass and the almost black of the forest. Even the dude showed an interest. "No point, aw, could do this thing, ye know, aw." The language of the dude was not particularly flow, but his head was level. However, he got knocked completely out of time further on. The train stopped at a neat cottage painted brown. In the door was a rosy-cheeked maiden, leaning in unconscious grace upon her broom. "Aw, me gabhl, don't ye get lonesome, ye know, aw, way up head?" he ventured, with a snail that trespassed on the back of his neck. The girl seemed astonished for a moment, and then, looking over her shoulder, called: "Pap, pap! the dime museum monkey is loose! Kill it and get its clothes!" The dude seemed to shrink, and nothing could induce him to open his mouth from that point to the journey's end.
